

NOTES FOR SUNDAY SERMON

2 JULY 2023

Sermon title : Knowing the will of God

Scripture : Proverbs 4:10-27

Point 1 : The will of God is a path, not a door.

Let me encourage you this morning, rather than look to doors in your life, look to your way of life.

Is God in it or just part of it.

Verse 11 "I will lead you in straight paths"

Point 2 : The path you're on determines the destination you arrive at.

Let me encourage you this morning, our steps each day are crucial to reaching our end goal that God has for us.

Verse 25 "Fix your eyes on what lies before you"

Verse 26 "Stay on the safe path"

Verse 27 "Don't get sidetracked."

Point 3 : The condition of our heart is the most significant factor in determining the direction of our path.

Let me encourage you this morning, who has your heart?
Whomever or whatever we give our heart to, will give us the direction we're going in.

Does God have your heart?

Verse 23 "Guard your heart about all else, for it determines the course of your life."

Point 4 : The Word of God is how we remain on track.

Let me encourage you this morning, let reading your Bible each day become more than a habit -let it become a way of life.

Psalms 119:105 - this verse sums up Proverbs chapter 4 so well.
"Your Word is a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path."
